Re: Michael Anthony Lucarelli
14 CR 00632 (JMF)

Dear Judge Furman:

After waiting some three weeks for an acknowledgment or response from the U.S. Probation Office, and receiving none, we write to bring to your attention two communications previously submitted to Probation. We believe they contain important information relevant to the upcoming sentence on January 21, 2015.

In addition, we enclose another character reference letter, just received from Brian Kennedy,

Finally, although we shall seek a non-custodial sentence on January 21st, we are aware of recommendations to the contrary, which if compelling to the Court could result in a sentence of imprisonment. In that latter event, we respectfully ask that Mr. Lucarelli, prior to reporting to prison, be permitted to attend and graduate from the trucking school referenced in our earlier submission. This would afford him some hope for the future and assuage some of the pain of incarceration.

Respectfully,
